

Sample Nurse Practitioner

Summary of Qualifications

I have provided primary care services as a Family Nurse Practitioner for 10+ years, and instituted the Lower East Side Service Center's first primary care unit, where I serve as its Executive Director, as well as clinician. A firm believer in that providing education and counseling is the best form of preventative medicine, I make that my mission when training new FNPs at New York University.

Certifications

American Nursing Credentialing Center

valid until 2019

Certified Family Nurse Practitioner

NYS Department of Education

valid until 2017

Certified Family Nurse Practitioner

Current Board certifications

DEA, Infection Control Certification, National Provider Identification (NPI)

Professional Experience

Lower East Side Service Center

since 2007

Executive Director / Family Nurse Practitioner

- Provide primary care services that include gynecology, hypertensive disease diabetic, arthritis, asthma, HIV and other infectious diseases
- Administered methadone detoxification
- Lead group smoking cessation and wellness education programs

New York University

since 2007

Adjunct Professor

- Educate nurse practitioner students in evidence-based clinical medicine in primary care settings

Brownsville Multi-Service Health Center

2004 - 2007

Family Nurse Practitioner

- Provided primary care services for the same diseases and conditions as above
- Conducted patient education and counseling sessions regarding disease management

The Brooklyn Hospital

1994 - 2005

Charge Nurse: Cardio-pulmonary Care Unit (37 bed, 10-person staff)

- Provided postop care following hip fractures and stoma surgery
- Managed cardiac and telemetry patients and ventilator-dependents patients
- Counseled families regarding end-of-life decisions

Clinical Experience

Woodhull Hospital Medical Center

2001

Primary Care Clinic

Kings County Medical Center

2001 - 2002

Primary Care/ HIV Clinic / Pediatric HIV clinic

Education

Pace University

MS – Family Nurse Practitioner

Downstate, State University of New York

BS - Nursing

Kingsborough Community College

Associates Degree - Nursing