

Client Information

Summary of Qualifications

I will shortly graduate with a Master's degree in Forensic Linguistics, a new field that provides insight for legal and insurance investigations into criminal activity, fraud, security threat assessments, and civil trademark protection cases. My prior experiences include fact-finding research, interviewing, and writing on behalf of non-profit organizations. My business-level proficiency in Spanish developed from my global experience and professional contacts.

Notable Accomplishments

- Collaborated on Mindfire, a portal named 2012 PR Product of the Year for students to work on projects for Fortune 500 companies that included FedEx, IKEA, Frito-Lay, Wendy's, Hertz, Mattel, Nokia

Professional Experience

Robert Leonard Associates

2018

Intern

- Assignments involve linguistic analysis of mega-data that include false confessions, authorship analyses, threat assessments, fraud investigations, determinations of complicity, and suspects' comprehension of Miranda rights

PR Newswire

2015

Audience Researcher (Latin American Media)

- Conducted research to curate & verify data on media companies & their employees that was relevant to the media & PR industry
- Established trust in company in order to solicit data for well-regarded product

One Click Politics

2014

Community Manager Intern

- Pitched compelling stories to the media in the USA, Canada, and Australia
- Built engagement for brand among target demographic on social media
- Wrote press releases

Community Food Advocates

2013

Outreach Intern

- Conducted field research interviews of >700 residents in local communities to assess public awareness of the NYC Summer Meals program
- Conducted business outreach to engage store-owners as community leaders and supporters of the program
- Developed data on availability & type of food stores in low-income communities

Software

Westlaw, PhotoShop, Illustrator, InDesign, Premier, MS Office suite

Education

Hofstra University M.A. – Forensic Linguistics anticipated 5/18

Marist College B.A. – Communications & Media Arts 2014

(attended campuses in Italy & Cuba as part of minor in Global Studies and Latin America & Caribbean Studies)